3. HESDARC workshop for finalization of changes in B. Pharm Regulation and Curriculum at School of Pharmacy, Amrita University, Kochi, Kerala

29 May to 3 June 2023 (Mon through Sat)

Venue: Conference Hall, Amrita School of Pharmacy

Summary

A hands-on workshop for B. Pharm syllabus revision was organized by Amrita School of Pharmacy in association with HESDARC, Mysuru with the aim of reviewing and finalizing the modified B. Pharm curriculum. Dr. Bahubali. G. Nagavi and Dr. P. Jayasekhar from HESDARC were present as expert & external resource persons. The workshop covered discussions on B. Pharm regulations, a Review of the course contents of B. Pharm Semester I to Semester VIII, Practice School, Assessments, B Pharm Honours, Integrated B. Pharm MBA etc. The workshop was attended by about 35 faculty of college of Pharmacy and other constituent colleges of Amrita University

Broad objectives of the 6 days workshop were to standardize, fine-tune and finalize the B Pharm Regulations and Curriculum as per the guidelines of PCI, NEP 2020 and Amrita University

Specific achievements

1. Scope of all the courses of B Pharm were reframed in couple of paragraphs by incorporating Knowledge, Skills and Attitude (K, S and A) domains.
2. The workshop time was used to construct the PLO's, DLO's and CLO's, discuss, deliberate and decide collaboratively as a TEAM
3. PLO's and CLO's were rewritten under the categories of Knowledge, Skill & Attitude, 6 to 8 in number for each category.
4. Combined the CLO of practical and theory for each course.
5. Specification of hourly distribution of subtopics under each main unit was done
6. The maximum number of Text books and Reference books were optimized to 3 or 4 in each category. One International Book was included under the Text Book Category. Included latest editions of Text books/Reference books (from 2010 onwards can be included)
7. Reduction in credits for a few courses to optimize, make space for value added courses & electives as per NEP 2020

Dr Nagavi also spoke on Self Directed Learning (SDL) and emphasized the importance of independent learning, key stages, Overview and strategies for implementing SDL. The session was attended by the Principal, UGP & Exam Committee members. Dr Nagavi clarified all the doubts and mis-conceptions about SDL. After detailed discussions, SDL of 2 hrs was incorporated in the time table of each class of B Pharm. Dr Nagavi mentioned that

SDL if incorporated and implemented in the B Pharm program will be a game changer and assured that students will become self-learners, empowered learners and Life Long Learners

The courses were divided under Foundation, Biomedical, Pharmacy and Elective courses
The committee suggested including few more courses as optional science electives (Medical devices, Food Analysis)

Principal, Dr. Sabitha M. On behalf of the entire team, she expressed her gratitude to the team HESDARC, Dr. Nagavi & Dr. Jayasekhar for their deep sense of sincerity and efforts throughout the workshop in finalizing an excellent B.Pharm curriculum for Amrita. Dr Sabitha appreciated the coordination and efforts of UGP Committee and Exam committee members and also thanked all the faculty members for their sincere contributions to revising the curriculum and for the workshop. Dr. Subin Mary Zachariah, Convenor of the UGP Committee delivered the vote of thanks.

Dr Nagavi and Dr Jayasekhar appreciated TEAM Amrita lead by Dr Sabitha for the revision of B Pharm regulations and curriculum in tune with national aspirations and international standards
